

the last decade. On his watch, the council oversaw multiple public and private development projects, among them the building of City Hall, the Teen Centre Vibe, the North Peninsula Jewish Community Center, the redevelopment of Miramar and Marlin Cove and the redevelopment of the Gilead Science Campus, the Pilgrim/Triton and Chess/Hatch projects. Everyone in Foster City has benefitted from Rick's outstanding work.

Rick was born in Sacramento. He earned his Bachelor and Masters Degrees in Public Administration from San Diego State University and the University of Southern California respectively.

Before attending college, Rick worked as a beach life guard for the United States Coast Guard from 1960–64. While attending San Diego State University, he became an administrative intern in Oceanside in San Diego County in February 1968. That was clearly where he caught the public service bug. The same year Rick became the administrative assistant to the city manager of Yorba Linda in Orange County where he stayed for two years. From 1970–73, he was assistant manager and administrative assistant in Buena Park, Orange County, until he became the manager for this city of 62,000 residents.

In 1977 Rick moved north to the San Francisco Peninsula to assume his position as city manager of Foster City. He successfully dealt with past political and administrative turmoil and put in place a professional team that managed the needs of the city. Rick also served as manager of the Estero Municipal Improvement District and as executive director to the Redevelopment Agency.

From 1994–95, he served as interim public works director of South San Francisco where he oversaw a freeway interchange and railroad grade separation. He returned to the department in 1997 as a special Projects coordinator. The same year he became interim director of Community Redevelopment in Morgan Hill and acting public works director in Daly City. During his time in Daly City, Mother Nature presented Rick with a special challenge: an "El Nino" that year with heavy rains, wind and mudslides made his work overseeing streets and storm drains no picnic, but of course he saw the city through this most difficult of times.

From 1999–2000, Rick served as interim public works director in San Bruno. He was deeply involved in the negotiations regarding the BART station and the extension of underground lines through the city.

Rick has also served on the boards of directors of numerous organizations including the Industrial Emergency Council, the ABAG Plan Corp., the Bay Area Water Supply and Conservation Agency and the San Mateo County Advance Life Support Joint Powers Authority. Additionally he has 30 years of experience as a volunteer fire fighter.

Rick married his wife Judie 48 years ago and they raised two children, Carey and Dennis.

Mr. Speaker, I ask this body to rise with me to honor the work of Rick Wykoff, my friend and an extraordinary public servant who has improved the lives of tens of thousands of Californians.

HONORING THE LOS ANGELES SELECTS HOCKEY PEEWEE AAA TEAM

HON. DANA ROHRBACHER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 28, 2012

Mr. ROHRBACHER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to commend the members of the Los Angeles Selects Hockey Peewee AAA team for winning the prestigious Peewee World Championship Tournament in Quebec on February 19, 2012. In the 53-year history of the tournament, this accomplishment marks the first time that a California team has won the event at the highest level of competition.

The L.A. Selects defeated the Vancouver North Shore Hockey Club in the championship game tournament by a score of 4–2 in hockey's equivalent of the Little League World Series. The Selects defeated teams from Russia, Slovakia, Detroit and Canada on their way to the title.

Over 100 teams comprised of 12- and 13-year old hockey players and representing 14 countries competed in the event. Over 10,000 people watched the championship game that took place in the Quebec Colisee, home of the former NHL Quebec Nordiques. Many NHL stars, such as Wayne Gretzky and Mario Lemieux, played in this tournament as youngsters. Since 1960, the Quebec tournament is the pinnacle of hockey competition where nearly 200,000 hockey fans attend the twelve-day event.

The L.A. Selects Peewee AAA Championship Roster included constituents from my district as well as a number of other high caliber players from the surrounding area: Cooper Haar (Huntington Beach), Jordan Bonner (Huntington Beach), Brett Rudy (Huntington Beach), Dexter Russo (Laguna Beach), Cayla Barnes (Corona), Jacob McGrew (Orange), Jack St. Ivany (Manhattan Beach), Vanya Lodnia (Anaheim), Cole Guttman (Northridge), Brandon McDonald (Valencia), Rhett Bruckner (Las Vegas), Brannon McManus (Upland), Nikolai Gruzdev (Valencia), Jesse Lycan (Escondido), Lukas Uhler (Upland).

Finally, Mr. Speaker, I submit the following article, from Youth1.com about the team and the tournament.

LA SELECTS WIN QUEBEC INTERNATIONAL PEEWEE HOCKEY TOURNAMENT

(By Dan Lio)

The No. 5 LA Selects rebounded from their opening game loss to win five straight games en route to capturing the tournament title at the 53rd Annual Quebec International Peewee Hockey Tournament, a tournament that lasted over a week long.

In their opening game on Monday, the Selects gave up a 3rd period lead, falling 3–2 to the St. Louis Blues. After the loss, their offense was in full force in their next game last Wednesday as they defeated Bratislava 14–0. In the win the Selects received hat tricks from three different players, including Jake McGrew, Cole Guttman and Vanya Lodnia. Also scoring in the win were Cayla Barnes, Brannon McManus, Jesse Lycan, Lukas Uhler and Brett Rudy. The Selects were back in action the following day to take on No. 4 ranked Compuware. In a well-played game by both team the Selects defeated Compuware 3–2 behind two goals from McManus and one from Guttman. Picking up the win inbetween the pipes was Rhett

Bruckner. The Selects blew out Russia Forward in their next game, defeating them 8–1. Offensively, McManus led the way with four goals and one assist, while Guttman pitched in with two goals and an assist. Both Jake McGrew and Cooper Haar also found the back of the net in the win, while goalie Brandon McDonald picked up his second win of the tournament.

The Selects battled the Whitby Wildcats in their next game, with the winner advancing to the championship game. It was all Selects from the get go as they eventually took home the 6–2 win. In the win they received goals from six different players, including McGrew, Lodnia, Guttman, Haar, Lycan and Jordan Bonner.

In the championship game the Selects took on the previously undefeated North Shore Winter Club. In a total team effort, the Selects were able to double up North Shore, taking home the 4–2 victory to win the championship. Brannon McManus and Vanya Lodnia each had two goals and an assist in the win, while Jake McGrew and Cayla Barnes each pitched in with an assist. Playing phenomenal in net was Rhett Bruckner as he picked up his third straight win.

Congratulations to all members of the team, including coaches Shawn Pitcher, Greg Chinarian, Andrew Cohen, Igor Nikulin, Barry McManus and players Brandon McDonald, Rhett Bruckner, Jack St. Ivany, Jake McGrew, Vanya Lodnia, Dexter Russo, Cole Guttman, Jordan Bonner, Cayla Barnes, Brannon McManus, Cooper Haar, Nikolai Gruzdev, Jesse Lycan, Lukas Uhler and Brett Rudy.

CONFERENCE REPORT ON H.R. 3630, MIDDLE CLASS TAX RELIEF AND JOB CREATION ACT OF 2012

SPEECH OF

HON. HENRY A. WAXMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 17, 2012

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, on February 24, 2012, Rep. FRED UPTON, the Chairman of the Energy and Commerce Committee, inserted into the record a section-by-section discussion of the spectrum provisions in H.R. 3630, the Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012. This is a one-sided and after-the-fact attempt to influence interpretation of the Act by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) and reviewing courts. Although there are a number of inaccuracies in the section-by-section analysis, Rep. UPTON's commentary on section 6404, which adds a new paragraph 17 to section 309(j) of the Communications Act addressing participation in auctions, is particularly egregious.

Rep. UPTON made two unsuccessful attempts prior to the passage of this legislation to have the conferees adopt his views on the consensus language in section 6404. First, on February 15, 2012, Rep. UPTON's staff proposed that language be inserted into the Joint Explanatory Statement of the Conference Committee stating that a "full spectrum of bidders" must be allowed to buy spectrum in incentive auctions. The conferees rejected this suggested language. In particular, it did not reflect the provision in the final bill that preserved the authority of the FCC to adopt rules that protect competition in any market, such as by requiring carriers that win licenses at auction to divest spectrum.
